This Act lays down provisions on the duty of individuals, enterprises and other organization's and legal persons:

- 1) to prevent fires and other accidents;
- 2) to prepare for accidents and operations when there is the threat of an accident or when an accident occurs;
- 3) to limit the consequences of accidents;
- 4) to construct and maintain civil defense shelters;
- 5) to participate in the tasks carried out as part of rescue operations and in civil defense training.

Wellbeing services counties has been responsible for organising health, social and rescue services from 1 January 2023

The responsibility for organising healthcare, social welfare and rescue services was transferred from municipalities and joint municipal authorities to wellbeing services counties on 1 January 2023.

There are 21 wellbeing services counties, and the division into counties is mainly based on the division into regions. The region of Uusimaa is divided into four wellbeing services counties.

The City of Helsinki will continue to be responsible for organising health, social and rescue services. The HUS Group will be responsible for demanding specialised healthcare duties separately laid down by law.
